Dissecting the Prompt: How It Works

Creating an AI image that looks like a hand-crafted scrapbook page requires precision. Here is a breakdown of why this prompt works so brilliantly:

1. The Subject & The Attachment Rule

By explicitly stating "the person from the attached picture", we anchor the AI. Instead of generating a random model, the AI is forced to pull facial features and clothing details directly from the image you provide. Always attach your source image!

2. Composition & Style

The magic of this prompt lies in the "Paper-cut collage style on a notebook-paper background." By mixing "hand-drawn ink-sketch aesthetics" with "doodles, circles, and handwritten labels", the prompt instructs the AI to blend photorealism (your face/clothes) with 2D abstract art, creating a trendy, editorial scrapbook vibe.

3. Lighting & Editing Instructions

To make a collage look real, it needs depth. Commands like "crisp white cut-out borders" and "soft shadows" simulate the physical thickness of paper. Furthermore, "even, diffused lighting" ensures there are no harsh glares that would ruin the illusion of a flat-lay sketchbook page.

4. Refining Details & Factual Constraints

AI can sometimes warp faces when mixing art styles. The strict negative commands—“No facial distortion... Avoid large heads... plastic skin”—act as guardrails. Combined with the factual constraint to “Preserve the exact face identity and exact colors”, it guarantees the final piece still looks exactly like you and your actual OOTD.
